30+ direct recommendations !

... from people who has been really working with me during my years of permanent contracts and all my interim missions, from Top Management, C-level colleagues, IT Teams or members of operational teams :

« Yann is an exceptional interim CIO ... »

« ... I particularly appreciated his teaching style and his ability to adapt his speech, making sometimes complex subjects understandable. ... »

« Beyond the professional aspect, Yann is a deeply caring, generous, and pleasant person. A rare profile that I can only highly recommend in case of urgent and critical difficult issues.... »

« ... Beyond his technical and managerial skills, Yann is an inspiring leader, capable of uniting his teams and peers around a clear and ambitious vision. Working alongside him has always been a pleasure, and I would not hesitate to repeat this experience if the opportunity arose..... »

« ... He greatly helped me develop my skills and adopt more effective professional attitudes. Thanks to his mentorship and wise advice, I was able to grow in my role and gain better confidence in myself and my abilities..... »

« ... Yann was able to make an extremely relevant diagnosis of the situation very shortly after taking office and draft a plan that meets the expectations of the business thanks to his great listening and synthesis skills. He is capable of making complex subjects understandable to people who are not IT specialists, which allows him to easily involve the teams in the projects..... »

And much more ...
